

Seymour News

Friday 8th September 2023

Dear mums, dads and carers,

We hope that everyone had a good break over the summer and going by how enthusiastic the children are we can tell they are glad to be back in school.

The children are looking super smart in their red, white, grey and black uniforms.

On Monday morning children from Yr1-6 promptly started lessons at 8.45am, caught up with friends and had fun at play times. Our Reception children had their first full day today and we predict will be exhausted tonight (let's hope they have a lie in tomorrow!) Additionally, new staff members have settled in really quickly and already feel part of the big happy Seymour family.

Keep cool and see you on Monday.
