The importance of play

In time when everyone plays on a smartphone or tablet we must not forget the importance of playing games and getting out and about. Play helps our children to be more confident, build social skills and have a positive wellbeing.

KEEP SAFE WHEN USING THE ROAD

Drop off and pick up time are busy times on the roads around school.

Please can everyone be aware of everyone's safety.

- Not park on the single yellow or zig zags
- Make sure your child is wearing a seat belt when traveling in a car
- Cross the road using the lollipop lady
- Does your child wear a helmet if they ride a bike to school
- Look out for our new 'no stopping here' and 'no parking' signs.

YOU HAVE GOT TO BE IN IT TO WIN IT!

We have only one week left of our 20 day sprint competition. On Friday 20th next week, we will be randomly picking a name out of a hat of one child who has been in school for the last 20 days. They will win a family ticket to Cineworld Crawley.

After half term, up to Christmas we will be running another competition - whichever class has the highest attendance and whichever has the biggest improvement will get a visit from a Christmas VIP!!!!
